House 10 — Career, reputation and your place in society

Sagittarius · 8.3°

This is the area of career, reputation and your place in society. The cusp is in Sagittarius: optimistic, free, curious about the world.

Its ruler, Jupiter, is in Cancer, house 4 (home, family, roots and private life): this area is closely tied to home, family, roots and private life.

No planet: this area is lived through its ruler and outside events.

IN PRACTICE

Define clearly the ambition you want to embody and pursue it with consistency.

05

Your major aspects

Aspects are the dialogues between your planets. Here are the ones that matter most in your chart, ranked by strength.

Moon — Square — Ascendant

orb 0.53° · applying

This aspect links your emotions to your image and the way you approach life.

A driving tension: this friction pushes you to act and progress. It becomes a strength when you give it a concrete project.

Mars — Conjunction — Saturn

orb 1.48° · separating

This aspect links the link between your energy, discipline, endurance and patience.

The two energies merge and act together: a point of strength and intensity. Learn to tell their roles apart so you can use them in turn.

Jupiter — Trine — Ascendant

orb 1.21° · applying

This aspect links your need for expansion to your image and the way you approach life.

A natural flow: the two energies cooperate effortlessly. Cultivate this talent to make it a real skill rather than taking it for granted.

06

Personality and temperament

Your identity, your style and the way you approach the world.

Your Sun in Pisces (12°25') represents your core identity, your vitality and what you are growing into. You assert yourself through sensitivity: intuition, empathy and imagination colour your whole personality. In house 1, this energy focuses on personality, appearance and the way you approach life.

Your Ascendant in Pisces (2°05') shapes your first impression with these traits: intuitive, compassionate and dreamy. Pisces is the sign of intuition, compassion and imagination.

The ruler of your Pisces Ascendant is Neptune, located in Capricorn, house 11: it is the key to how you move through life.

Traits associated with a Sun in Pisces: intuitive, compassionate and dreamy.

Your chart is marked by the Water element (40.5%), which highlights emotion, intuition and sensitivity.

The Fire element is under-represented: a shortage of drive that action and play can help feed.

The dominant modality is Mutable: it stresses adaptation and flexibility.

Your transits for the next twelve months

The major planetary passages touching your chart, with their computed periods.

Only passages of the slow planets (Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, Pluto) are kept: they are the ones that mark periods. Dates show entry into the orb, the moments of exactness and the exit.
